Romans: RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Introduction

Good Judgment, Bad Judgment

I. (Romans 14:1-12) Christians and Disputable Matters

1. Eating meat sacrificed to idols (verses 1-4)
2. Observing ceremonial days (verses 5-8)
 - * Conscience and degrees of faith (verse 2)
 - * Motives for doing or not doing anything (verses 6, 8)
 - * What are “disputable matters” today?

II. True “Christian” Responses (“Alelous”)

Accept one another. Do not judge one another. Don’t look down on one another. Do not condemn one another. Do not make one another stumble. Keep the peace, build up one another....love one another!

III. (Romans 14:13-23) “The Law of Love”

*Love is considerate of others’ thoughts, needs and concerns!

Make every effort to do what leads to peace and mutual edification (verse 19)

*What about “NON-NEGOTIABLES”?

Defend the Faith (Jude 1:3)

1. The Authority of Scripture
2. The Lordship of Jesus Christ
3. The Centrality of the Gospel

“In matters of principle, stand like an oak. In matters of preference, bend like a willow.”

Application

1. Are you getting “worked up “ over disputable matters?
2. Can you tell the difference between “major” and “minor” doctrines?
3. How well are we learning to live the Christian life the “one another way”?
