Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of April 30, 2023

From Rehoboam's rule we now pick up the next two kings of Judah, Abijah and Asa. While Abijah is not hailed as a good and obedient king like Asa is (2 Chronicles 14:2), he is definitely used by God to stand down the onslaught of the invasion of the Northern Kingdom and the wicked King Jeroboam. Chapter 13:4-12 is an excellent explanation of God's original plan for his people Israel and an argument for why God will bless Abijah's military over Jeroboam's, even through the Northern Kingdom outnumbers the Southern Kingdom, 2 to 1.

Again, Asa is twice acclaimed to be a good king in the league of King David before him. He also takes part in a major military battle with the Cushites through which God acts decisively. His prayer in chapter 14:11 is worth memorizing. In it, he affirms God as the ultimate victor who comes to the aid of the "powerless". Notable of Asa is that he serves one of the longest administrations (41 years) but stumbles in the end by aligning with the pagan King of Aram. We'll finish the week with a one chapter summary of that time period from 1 King 15.
