Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of June 18, 2023

We will pick up this week's readings with two prophets who were contemporaries of Issiah -- Micah and Joel. Micah prophesies during the reigns of Jotham, Ahaz and Hezekiah and speaks directly to the capital city of Jerusalem, as well as Samaria of the Northern Kingdom. He deals with the two kingdoms as one Israel. The prophet is pleading with Israel to turn to God from their sins and escape coming judgment. Micah points to the Assyrian empire as God's rod of punishment to the nation if it doesn't repent. He also sets forth the future hope of national restoration and a ruling Messiah.

Joel writes to Judah, the Southern Kingdom, a message of impending doom and ultimate deliverance. Joel's message is one of urgency. He likens coming judgement to the invasion of a plague of locusts in the land. He refers to this judgement as "the day of the Lord". In chapter two however he speaks of God's intervention and finishes the chapter with the promise of the coming of the Holy Spirit and miraculous signs of God's salvation. The future will include restoration of Israel and judgment for the pagan nations that attacked and persecuted Israel.
