Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of September 10, 2023

Paul writes in 1 Thessalonians 5:18 that we are to give thanks in all circumstances for this is God's will for us in Christ Jesus. As Christians, we can by faith thank and praise God even in tough and uncertain circumstances.

We have been looking at a number of Lament Psalms during the last several weeks, noticing the pattern of prayer that David models for us in tough circumstances. This week, let's turn the corner and look at some praise and thanksgiving Psalms as models of how to get our focus off ourselves and our circumstances. We need to learn to focus on God, his greatness and his grace and mercy available to us at all times.

The week's group of Psalms are often referred to as "the Hallelujah Psalms". Take note of the various things the authors highlight about God and his character. When we are in trouble, we always need to look up to God and affirm just who he is and what he has done, and yet can do on our behalf.
