Bible Reading 2021
Chart the Course
Old Testament
Week of September 12, 2021

This week we will hit both the shortest chapter in the Bible (Psalm 117) and the longest chapter in the Bible (Psalm 119). Psalm 118:8 is also the exact center verse of the Bible: It is better to take refuge in the Lord than to trust in man. Psalm 119 is an acrostic Psalm using the 22 letters of the Hebrew alphabet to launch each section of eight verses. The theme of the psalm is the superiority of the word of God. Notice the author's attitude towards God's word and the various synonyms he uses to represent it (i.e. law, precepts, commands, decrees, etc.) All of the psalms in the 120's are "songs of ascent". These were a group of short psalms meant to be sung by the Israelites whenever they took pilgrimages to Jerusalem, normally three times a year for the three major feasts of Israel. Enjoy this week's readings!
