Bible Reading 2021
Chart the Course
Old Testament
Week of September 26, 2021

We finish off the book of Psalms this week with 5 outstanding psalms of praise. Next we go from the Hebrew poetry of the Old Testament writings -- The Prophets. For the rest of the year, we will read together the writings of 16 different prophets, men who spoke the word of God to Israel during turbulent and tumultuous times. The first and longest prophetic book is Isaiah. The word Isaiah means Salvation is of the Lord. He speaks to the southern kingdom, Judah, over a period some 60 years, during which he both exhorts and comforts God's people. Isaiah also predicts many of the coming events related to the Messiah's birth, his ministry, death and ultimate reign over an eternal kingdom. Read carefully each chapter and try to capture a sense of God's heart for the people and his message to them. Much of what he says holds true for us in our generation as well. Each Friday this fall, I will also include a reading for the sermon text from Luke for that coming Sunday.
