Bible Reading 2021
Chart the Course
Old Testament
Week of October 10, 2021

This section of Isaiah requires careful reading and attention to detail. The first several chapters range between Israel, Israel's neighbors and the whole world. They also range between impending judgment and a future glory when God's final kingdom will be established on earth. The readings from Wednesday - Friday deal specifically with Israel -- here most often referred to as Jerusalem, Ephraim and Judah. While the threats of judgment in Isaiah are prevalent, the promises of restoration and a new age of blessings, prosperity and glory also abound. Notice especially chapters 25, 26, 32,33 and 35. God is at work in history and he is progressively moving all things towards his intended ends. And we have a part to play in his plan!
