Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of October 16, 2022

Solomon's book of Proverbs is considered wisdom literature. It repeatedly outlines what wisdom is and what wisdom does and does not do. His book also falls into the section of scriptures known as Hebrew Poetry. This includes Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes and Song of Songs. Hebrew poetry does not rely on rhyme like English poetry. Hebrew poetry relies on the device of parallelism. We see this everywhere in the book of Proverbs, where Solomon either compares one line with a second line, or he contrasts the first line with the second. This is also easily spotted when you read the Psalms of David.

Take your time reading through Proverbs this week. Continue to let God speak to you. Ask the Holy Spirit to give you at least one truth or principle that you can apply to your life each day. No doubt there's plenty to work with in the book of Proverbs!
