Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of October 23, 2022

This week we will finish off our reading from the book of Proverbs. Our general theme continues to be what wisdom is and what wisdom does. Notice our study has revolved primarily around Solomon's teachings to his son. Apparently now, as of chapter 25, we add to his personal list of Proverbs more proverbs of Solomon that were selected during the reign of King Hezekiah (see 2 Kings 18:1-8). We also add the sayings of Agur and King Lemuel in chapters 30 and 31, although we are not given any details as to who these men were or why their sayings are added on to Solomon's proverbs.

One of the crowning passages of Proverbs is Chapter 31, verses 10-31. This has been coined The Qualities of a Virtuous Woman. Herein finishes the total collection of Proverbs with its powerful emphasis on Godly living. Read it pensively with attention to passages and principles that apply to yourself and your present life circumstances. Remember God's promise to you is his blessings as you apply the wisdom of Proverbs to your daily life (Proverbs 8:32-35).
