Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of December 25, 2022

We will return to the book of Psalms this week and continue working our way through ancient Israel's hymnal. We launch the week with a couple of historic psalms, recounting God's hand upon Israel in various ways. Psalm 110 is a classic Messianic psalm, quoted in part several times in the New Testament. Two other Messianic psalms that we read previously are Psalm 2 and 22. From Psalm 111 on are primarily praise Psalms. We'll save Psalm 119 for next week when we can read it in more detail. Until then, keep taking note of how God's divine attributes are being revealed in the various kinds of Psalms that we read each day. Like David and his contemporaries, we want to be able to acknowledge God's glory and goodness and verbally give him his due honor, praise and thanks.
