Old Testament

Week of February 20, 2022

Congratulations. If you've read along with us the past two weeks, you are almost at the conclusion of the first of four gospels (Luke is actually the longest pagewise though not in number of chapters.) This week we will follow Jesus to Gethsamene, to Pilate's patio, to the cross, the grave and his resurrection! On Wednesday we'll begin the book of Acts. I thought it would be good to read Luke and Acts as a pair since Luke authored both books. (See Acts 1:1-3). The book of Acts begins where Luke's Gospel ends. From his ascension we follow Jesus' disciples forward out into society as they begin to extend his ministry from Jerusalem to Judea, to Samaria and out into the world. (See Acts 1:8) Chapters 1-7 take place in Jerusalem. Chapters 8-12 branches into Judea and Samaria. Chapters 13 and following take us into Asia Minor as the gospel spreads through the first disciples and the Apostle Paul. Notice as you read how the early church established itself. We are heirs of all they did from that earliest time in Jerusalem. And, we would do well to learn from their experiences.
