Bible Reading 2021
Chart the Course
Old Testament
Week of February 28, 2021

Prologue

The first half of Exodus finds Moses leading Israel out of Egypt into the desert to Mount Sinai where they would receive the Ten Commandments, God's moral law for the nation. Following the ten commandments, Moses is given details on various judgments and feasts, instructions for the tabernacle, the priests and worship rites. The golden calf incident throws a major "ringer" into the sanctity of that moment and requires Moses' intervention on behalf of the nation. The book concludes with the actual construction of the Tabernacle as the center of religious life for Israel.
