Bible Reading 2021
Chart the Course
Old Testament
Week of June 27, 2021

Having completed the mission to rebuild the wall around Jerusalem and secure the city, the people come together under the leadership of Nehemiah, now governor, and Ezra the priest to recommit themselves to God as a nation. Extensive lists of family lines and geneologies add credibility and historic reliability to Nehemiah's record of that era. His writings along with Malachi are chronologically the last records of the Old Testament. Chapter 13 concludes with a final act of obedience to the law of Moses.

The book of Esther occurs during the Babylonian exile while Xerxes is king of Persia (486-465 BC). Ezra 4:6 mentions Xerxes while the Jews are in Jerusalem rebuilding the temple. Esther becomes queen of Persia. Under her uncle Mordecai's tutelage, she acts to avert an attempt to massacre the Jewish people in exile. The feast of Purim is still celebrated by Jewish peoples worldwide in honor of Esther's acts of bravery 2400 years ago!
