New Testament

Week of March 13, 2022

We launch this week with the Gospel of Matthew. Of the four gospels, two were written by eyewitness disciples of Jesus -- Matthew and John. Matthew is my favorite gospel containing some of the best-loved portions of scripture, including the story of the wisemen visiting the manger, the Sermon on the Mount, the Kingdom Parables, the Triumphal Entry, the Olivet Discourse, the extended version of Jesus' passion and the Great Commission. Having worked as a tax collector, Matthew records more of Jesus' teaching about money than any of the other gospels.

This week we'll read the first 10 chapters of Matthew's gospel. Chapters 3-10 cover approximately the first of Jesus' three years of public ministry. Read carefully through each day's assigned chapters. Mark verses that speak directly to your life situation and trust God to use your study to strengthen your knowledge of Jesus and your desire to follow him.
