New Testament

Week of March 27, 2022

We will take our reading time this week to finish the book of Matthew. Chapter 21 begins with the triumphal entry into Jerusalem. It is Jesus' last week of ministry. His week is a mix of private conversations and lessons about his return with his disciples and public confrontations with the Jewish religious leaders. Matthew captures an amazing amount of information from Jesus in his last 7-8 chapters. Read this section carefully. Chapters 24-25 are referred to as the Olivet Discourse and cover future prophecies of the fall of Jerusalem along with the far distant return of Christ at the end of the age. Chapters 26 and 27 cover the Last Supper, Jesus' passion in the garden, his arrest, trials, torture and crucifixion. Matthew dedicates his final chapter to the resurrection and Jesus' appearances to his disciples until he ascends into heaven.
