New Testament

Week of April 10, 2022

This week (Holy Week) we will finish reading the book of Mark. The last six chapters of Mark are dedicated to the last week of Jesus' life. While his gospel has majored on the works and miracles of Christ so far, as of chapter 11 he slows down and focuses in on Jesus' final instructions to his disciples, his confrontations with the religious leaders in Jerusalem, his passion, death and resurrection. Take it all in this week as we once more commemorate Jesus' sacrificial suffering and death on our behalf. And so Mark joins the band of other Evangelists, proclaiming to the world that there is salvation in Jesus Christ alone. Mark's purpose has been to present Jesus Christ to the world as God's great servant, the one who accomplishes his purposes on earth. Perhaps the key verse from this gospel is found in Monday's reading, Mark 10:43-45 -- Whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be slave of all. For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many.
