New Testament

Week of May 15, 2022

We continue on this week with our readings in 1 Corinthians. In chapter 6, Paul challenges the Corinthian believers who are taking fellow Christians to court. Next, Paul touches on marriage and the roles and responsibilities of spouses. He also touches on the issue of marriage to non-Christians. From there, Paul will deal with Christian liberty over legalism, Paul's ministry credentials, the Lord's Supper, spiritual gifts in the church, and the resurrection of the dead. No doubt the most famous message of Paul in 1 Corinthians is chapter 13, "The Love Chapter". Perhaps you might want to devote some extra study time to this chapter. The 13 verses are some of the most memorable verses of scripture. If you are up to the challenge, why not consider memorizing 1 Corinthians 13. Look over several different Bible versions, choose the one you like the best, print the chapter on a piece of paper and start working on it. You will be blessed for the effort if you do.
