New Testament

Week of May 22, 2022

We just finished reading Paul's first letter to the Corinthian believers. His second letter to Corinth is not like the first. 1 Corinthians is primarily written to correct practical and doctrinal problems that had arisen in that congregation. Paul's second letter to Corinth is much more instructive than corrective; it focuses on Paul's apostolic mission, his personal sufferings and his passion for the Corinthian church and its success. One theme that is weaved throughout 2 Corinthians is the ways that the devil works against Christians and how to overcome his tactics. As you read, take note of the following passages: 2:11; 4:3-4; 10:4-5; 11:3, 14; 12:7. Other themes to watch for in 2 Corinthians include how to endure suffering, personal competence in ministry, the works of the Holy Spirit, the new creation, generosity in giving, Paul's defense of his apostleship and plans for Paul's future visit to Corinth. One verse that has been a standout verse in my life is 2 Corinthians 3:6 -- God has made us competent as ministers of the new covenant, not of the letter but of the Spirit. For the letter kills but the Spirit gives life. God, through Jesus Christ, declares that we are competent (fit, able, worthy) to serve others through the power of the Holy Spirit!
