New Testament

Week of September 11, 2022

Finishing up the book of Revelation, we come to the last of the last things revealed by God in scripture. Chapter 20 deals with the Millennial Reign of Christ on earth. Six times in chapter 20 John uses the expression “a thousand years”. The period finishes with the release of Satan and the final battle of good vs. evil, concluding with the great white throne judgement. On Tuesday, we will go back to Psalms 72 and Isaiah 11 to see prophecies referring to this period. Chapter 21 ushers in the new heavens and new earth. We'll go to Isaiah, Romans and 1 Corinthians on Thursday to see this mirrored in previous biblical writings. Chapter 22 then caps off, not only the book of Revelation, but the whole of scriptures as the conclusion of God's revelation to humanity, the Bible. As we finish our reading, we are left waiting still for the second coming of Christ and the fulfillment of John's revelation of the last events on earth. Maybe we will be the final generation who will see these prophecies fulfilled!
