New Testament

Week of September 4, 2022

We are rounding the corner on the book of Revelation and headed towards the climax of history, the final restoration of heaven and earth! Still to come this week is the final set of judgements on earth, the seven Bowl judgements, plus the fall of Mystery Babylon, the Second Coming of Christ to earth and the epic battle of Armageddon. We'll come back next week and re-read chapter 20 plus 21 and 22 as we consider the final state of glory in the new heaven and the new earth and the ultimate establishment of the promised Kingdom of God.

Take some time to go back to chapters 6, 8 and 9 and review the previous seal and trumpet judgements. Now is a good time to consider whether these three sets of seven judgements are independent of one another and consecutive events, or are they the same seven judgement events restated with some variations three different times? Bible scholars are not sure which is the case and it makes for an interesting study in comparisons.

Another point of mystery in this week's study is the identity of "Babylon, the great prostitute". What nation or entity does this refer to? Again there is plenty of speculation among Bible scholars regarding Revelation 17 and 18. What do you think?
