Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of March 10, 2024

We pick back up this week with the appearance of the Apostle Paul on the scene in Acts, chapter 8. He is a main instigator in the persecution of the church, starting with Stephen. Notice how he describes this period of his life to different audiences later on in his ministry. The author of Acts, Luke, tells Paul's conversion story but then defers back to Peter for several chapters. While this doesn't directly deal with Paul, it's good to know the parallel context of Paul's early Christian life (maybe ten years) before he rises to prominence as a missionary, church planter and apostle. We'll continue on in his life history next week when we read further in the book of Acts.
