

Bible Reading 2021

Chart the Course

Old Testament

Week of February 1, 2021

Introduction

We are launching a “Read through the Old Testament” campaign beginning with the book of Genesis. The plan is to read through the Old Testament -- book by book and chapter by chapter -- covering 3-4 chapters a day, five days a week. The goal is to become more familiar with what’s in each book of the Bible, to survey its content, but also to discover spiritual truths which were written down thousands of years ago yet still apply to our lives today. In each day’s reading, you will be asked to simply record chapter highlights, note one or more verses that stand out as relevant for you personally and write one central lesson or application for our life. We encourage you to read in a Bible version that is written in modern English, to use a pen to mark in your Bible as you encounter relevant verses and to follow the daily reading guidelines as they are recorded in this flyer. We’ve made available a Bible Reading Chart to keep in your Bible in order to monitor your reading progress. If you miss a day or two, don’t panic. Start on the new day’s assigned reading and look to catch up when possible, maybe on the weekend. May God bless your personal study of the Bible, God’s truth for our lives!
