

Bible Reading 2021

Chart the Course

Old Testament

Week of March 14, 2021

This week will finish up the book of Leviticus and then start up our reading in Numbers. The book of Numbers pretty much picks up where Leviticus leaves off. It is named for the two censuses that occur -- one leaving Sinai and one taken 40 years later before entering the promised land. God has rescued his people from Egypt, given them his law at Sinai and now governs them in the desert through Moses, supernaturally guiding and providing for them over a period of 40 years. There are many notable elements of Numbers, but one is the assignment of tasks -- everyone has work to do. This is true for us as well in the church. We, as God's people, are responsible to build up the church and extend his Kingdom. A counter theme in Numbers is how quickly people can become dissatisfied and grumble against one another and God. Because of this repeated failure, a trip that should have taken them three weeks to arrive in Canaan ends up taking them 40 years!
