

Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of December 3, 2023

After surveying several of Jesus' parables, we will now fill in the blanks with some of Jesus' intermittent teachings during the last months of his ministry. The Jewish nation has officially rejected him as their king and the Jewish authorities are setting in place a plan to get rid of Jesus. He withdraws from the crowds for the most part and focuses on teaching his disciples in private before his eventual suffering and death. At this point in Matthew, each chapter covers various teachings and topics and includes an occasional miracle or two. Zero in on the main points of each chapter. Look for any connections to your own life and experience, and seek to be wise by applying his truth to your circumstances. His word will fortify you for any coming storms.
