Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of July 14, 2024

In our readings this week let's zero in on the topic of Israel and their present standing before God. We will add several chapters from the book of Hebrews to amplify the discussion and shed greater light on this topic. In Romans, Paul argues that Israel is still a part of God's plan even though the nation has experienced a hardening in part for a time. We live in what Jesus referred to as the time of the Gentiles. There is a time period coming where God will deal directly with his Old Testament nation and eventually bring them to Christ. Meanwhile, the book of Hebrews makes a case for Christianity being the fulfillment of the Old Covenant. The author suggests that Jesus Christ is superior to Moses, that the New Covenant is superior to the Old Covenant, that Jesus' priesthood and sacrifice are superior to the Levitical priesthood and that the heavenly sanctuary is superior to the temple sanctuary. And we understand all of this today. Christianity flows out of Judaism, the New Testament builds on the Old Testament and the New Covenant is a covenant based on God's grace and not the Mosaic law and human effort. Have a good week in the word.
