Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of August 25, 2024

Our reading through Proverbs continues to lead us on “the way of wisdom”. Solomon especially keys in on the contrast between “the righteous” and “the wicked”. Writing in the context of training his sons, he is repeatedly emphasizing the need for young people to develop discernment early on. Discerning right from wrong, good from evil, true from false is essential to living a healthy, productive and godly life. Solomon everywhere suggests that evil deeds and wickedness will ruin your life. His advice is to run from it, to steer clear and to avoid all varieties of godlessness. To the contrary, a wise man will follow godly advice, seek God's will in living and ultimately aspire to honor God. There are some potent truths in our five chapters this week. Read them pensively. As you read each day, ask God to show you applicable principles of wisdom that apply to you and your life circumstances.
