

Spiritual Disciplines Guide

Week of November 24, 2024

For the last four or five weeks, we've surveyed the old and New Testaments for passages that display the work of the devil in various times, peoples' lives and places. The devil's domain is darkness. The primary product of darkness is godlessness. And the challenge for believers, then and now, is to overcome darkness with light (godliness). Note Romans 12:21, John 1:5.

Of all the New Testament churches, Corinth was probably the most conflicted. The city of Corinth was a center of goddess worship, a very pagan place. The church of Corinth struggled with numerous issues and problems addressed by the Apostle Paul in his first letter to the Corinthians. In 2 Corinthians, Paul makes reference to a half dozen truths about the devil and his workings against us. We will take the next two weeks to survey the book of 2 Corinthians. Take note of what you learn about the devil's schemes and how we are to counter them as followers of Jesus Christ under the New Covenant.
